vote no, the is a poorly written bill that only confuses issues. Not needed, no purpose other to invite fraud.

Vote NO! This bill is written so badly that it seems it's designed to be confusing. Candidates should not have misdemeanors or felonies in their past., and eligible to vote. They should be trustworthy citizens.

NO! I object to this legislation because of its ambiguity and lack of clarity as to candidates who were accused of a crime and pardoned can run for office, but can't vote! We need "clean" candidates on the ballots and not those contaminated with prior offenses, be they misdemeanors and/or felonies - and must be eligible to vote!

Vote no, This bill doesn't make any sense.

Someone who was accused of a crime, and was pardoned can run for office, but not necessarily eligible to vote....???, or is it that someone who is disabled, then the disability is removed (what??)

somehow is now able to run for office, but not vote? You cannot keep someone from voting if they are a legally registered voter.

We want our candidates to be upstanding and honest citizens, free of misdemeanors, felonies, made up disabilities, and definitely eligible to vote. We don't want to make these people more eligible to run for office! Was this written just to see if we are paying attention?

Please vote No! The wording of this bill is poorly written and is confusing. The bottom line is that our candidates need to be upstanding citizens who are eligible to vote and who have not committed felonies or misdemeanors!

NO – This bill does not add clarity or functionality to the current bill, as it stands.

Vote NO. Why is this Committee even discussing this bill? We want our candidates to be upstanding citizens.

Vote NO! This bill is badly worded to confuse who is voting on it. It either indicates that someone who was accused of a crime and was pardoned can run for office but not necessarily be eligible to vote, or it indicates that someone who is disabled and the disability removed somehow is now able to run for office but not vote? We want our candidates to be upstanding citizens, free of misdemeanors and felonies, and definitely eligible to vote. We don't want to make these people more eligible to run for office!

This is a ridiculous bill.

Hon Dutton,

Vote NO on this bill!! The language is confusing. Candidates for office need to have clean records and be fully eligible to vote!

Thank you!!!
